

Cycle of Discussions CAF-DPS/OAS: Technology and Security

Second Discussion
Crime prediction: Myths, benefits, and challenges
AGENDA

Day: Wednesday, October 13

Time: 2:00 pm in Washington, DC / 3:00 pm in Buenos Aires

Location: Zoom

Duration: 1 hour and 45 minutes

Language: Spanish/English interpretation available

Live broadcast on the official channels of the OAS on YouTube and Facebook and of the CAF on YouTube.

Panel

Opening: Master of ceremonies, Guadalupe Aguirre, CAF Specialist in Citizen Security [5 minutes]

Welcome and introduction to the panel: Karen Bozicovich, Section Chief, Information and Knowledge on Public Security, DPS/OAS [5 minutes]

Introduction to the topic: The Rise, Fall, and Reinvention of Big Data-Based Policing, Andrew Guthrie Ferguson, Professor of Law, American University [15 minutes]

Panelists:

- Adoption of Pred Pol by the Uruguayan National Police and its implementation in the City of Montevideo, Ricardo Fraiman, specialist in citizen security and security forces [15 minutes]
- Crime prediction dashboard, Roberto González, Director, Observatory of Citizen Coexistence and Security Studies (Córdoba, Argentina), and Carlos Vilalta, Academic Member, CentroGEO [15 minutes]

Q&A: Karen Bozicovich, Section Chief, Information and Knowledge on Public Security, DPS/OAS [25 minutes]

Closing: Jorge Concha, Director of Analysis and Technical Evaluation of Sustainable Development VDS-CAF [5 minutes]

OAS | More rights
for more people

CAF BANCO DE DESARROLLO
DE AMÉRICA LATINA

Farewell: Master of ceremonies, Guadalupe Aguirre, CAF Specialist in Citizen Security