

Knowledge in the Time of Corona

 Pascal Saura | Sr. Knowledge & Learning Officer – The World Bank

Knowledge in startup mode

- A stress-test for knowledge management
- Scanning the horizon: us, them and the others
- From confusion to aggregation and coordination
- New normal and dedicated task forces (on Remote for instance)

Remote everything

- Data gaps, unfinished business and the confined team leader
- Technology for project preparation and supervision: drones, satellites, VR ... etc.
- Third party monitoring
- Remote technical assistance
